Dear Ed:

On behalf of the Conference Planning Committee, thank you for presenting at the CAHSAH fall conference, Visions of Home Care, After Home Care Reform. Your participation enabled CAHSAH to provide quality continuing education while maintaining its high standards.

The overall conference evaluations showed that attendees were pleased with the quality of information they received. To facilitate future improvements in our conference planning process, please complete the enclosed evaluation form based on your experience with the CAHSAH staff and the conference planning process.

Again, thank you for sharing your valuable expertise with conference participants. Your contributions added to the success of the conference and enhanced the skills and knowledge of home care providers and health care affiliates.

Sincerely,

Sam Villa, Conference Chairperson
