Dear Ed:

The International Association of Hispanic Meeting Professionals – IAHMP was honored to have you as a Keynote speaker during our Twelfth Annual Educational Conference December 6-9, 2007, at the Hotel Albuquerque in Old Town, New Mexico. We thank you very much for making the time to be with us and waiving your professional fee to support our organization. Your presence and energetic presentation helped IAHMP to provide a valuable educational program. Our members and supporters gained knowledge from your presentation which helped to insure the success of our conference.

Ed, your honesty in sharing your personal experiences and the ideas that you shared are invaluable resources for our meeting professionals. You have a wonderful ability to connect to your audience which is a true gift!

Gracias for sharing your wonderful talent and delivering a humorous dynamic message that was both exciting and educational. You're a great speaker and one we will recommend to other Hispanic groups who can benefit from your presentation skills. You're a one-of-a-kind speaker con Corazon!

Atentamente,

Margaret Gonzalez
President & CEO
